VOL. VIII. NO. 25.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

CLEVER FORECAST OF WEIGHTS.

In accordance with its usual custom The Spirit of the Times publishes the Brooklyn, Suburban and Brighton Handicaps weights, figured by Mr. C. J. Jones, of New York, one of the most expert amateur handicappers of this country. He served as official handicapper during the latter part of the Brighton meeting of 1897, and some of his best work was in the races won by Howard Mann at one and one-eighth miles, Isabey, six furlongs, Salabar five furlongs, Thomas Cat a mile and Sallie Cliquot a mile, all with the track deep in mud. For a number of years Mr. Jones has sent to the Spirit of the Times his handicaps a couple of weeks before the official allotment of weights by the handicapper of the Jockey Club, Mr. W. S. Vosburgh, and the highest compliment that could be paid to them has been accorded them on several occasions through the fact that the weights assigned by Mr. Jones have been found to approximate most closely to those later allotted by Mr. Vosburgh. Mr. Jones' trial weights for this year's big handicaps are as follows:

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Sam Bryant, one of the oldest trainers and owners, who has been a noted character on every race course in the country for the last forty years, is seriously ill at his home near Churchill Downs. Bryant gained a national reputation in 1888, when he campaigned that grand two-year-old Proctor Knott, and after winning all the best stakes at the spring meetings in the west, went east and captured the Junior Champion and Futurity Stakes. This was the first year for these two stakes, and Bryant, who was a partner of the Scoggin Brothers at that time, won both of them with the sorrel gelding Proctor Knott, that was said to be one of the grandest race horses ever foaled in the west. Proctor Knott was foaled at the Jackson farm in Tennessee. He was by Luke Blackburn-Talapoosa, and Bryant paid $175 for him. The two stakes alone were worth $75,000.

Sam Bryant is seventy-two years old and has led an active outdoor life, and his iron constitution is all that keeps him alive. He has never had any horses since the days of Proctor Knott that were of much class. The same year that Proctor Knott was in his zenith, or probably the year after, a stable companion of the noted gelding, Come to Taw, was one of Bryant's money getters. He was a consistent colt and added many a purse to the stable's large winnings. Bryant was a close friend of the late A. M. Waddell, one of the best known gamblers in the south. Waddell always had confidence in Bryant's judgment of a thoroughbred and encouraged him in a financial way to buy these two colts that won for Bryant a fortune.

The following was handed down by the stewards at New Orleans yesterday:

"We recommend that the further entry of the horse Hop Scotch be denied for the balance of this meeting.

"We recommend that the further entry of the horse Dr. Moore be denied until he is in condition to race.

"We recommend that the entry of the horse John Grigsby be denied hereafter on heavy or muddy track.

"Jockey Lindsay is fined $25 for reckless riding in the third race this date."

The conditions of the three stakes offered by the New Louisiana Jockey Club, which are to be run at their spring meeting, were made public yesterday. All have liberal added money and should receive heavy entries. The are as follows:

The St. Patrick Handicap, $1,000 added.—To be run Monday, March 17, 1902; for three-year-olds and upward; $5 to accompany the nomination; $25 additional to start. The New Louisiana Jockey Club to add $1,000, of which $200 to second and $100 to third. One mile and one-sixteenth.

The Flight Handicap, $1,000 added.—To be run Thursday, March 20, 1902; for three-year-olds and upward; $5 to accompany the nomination; $25 additional to start. The New Louisiana Jockey Club to add $1,000, of which $200 to second and $100 to third. Six furlongs.

The New Louisiana Stake, $2,000 added.—To be run Saturday, March 22, 1902; a handicap for four-year-olds and upward; $10 to accompany the nomination; $40 additional to start. The New Louisiana Jockey Club to add $2,000, of which $300 to the second, $200 to the third. Four miles.

The following is taken from the San Francisco Chronicle of January 24: "John Condon arrived from the east yesterday and is settled at Oakland for the winter. Condon is the biggest race track owner in America, owning all of Harlem, 20 per cent of Worth, a half-interest in Lakeside and a share of the new California Jockey Club track. Although Condon is blind, he supervises all his business. He is out here for pleasure. Condon takes a keen interest in the turf, and has many papers read to him every day. Previous to owning race tracks Condon was a heavy bettor."

Winner—B. f. by Montana—Merry Peeress. Went to post at 2:17. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Montana Peeress was lucky, received a strong ride and was the best. Yrsula finished fast. Knockings was shut off at the start and closed a big gap. Lass of Langden ran well and should improve. Torila is only an ordinary racer. Satchel is a slow beginner and can do better. Cathello got off badly and was the victim of a bad ride. Meteoro tired badly bending for home.

Montana Peeress, show, 2 to 1. Yrsula, show, 3 to 5. Knockings, show, 2 to 1. Satchel, show, 3 to 5.

30421 SECOND RACE—3 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.

Time, 2:44, 421.

Winner—Ch. c. by Nomad—Charm. Went to post at 2:42. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second handily. Arabo beat the gate and made the most of his advantage. Gold Van, off badly, closed a big gap and was the best. He has the appearance of a crackerjack but is big and awkward and lacked condition. Mireina ran like a stayer and came strongly at the end after being forced into the bad going. Len Reno ran a good race. Jennie McGowan has not much stamina. Past Master had no chance from the start he got.

Scratched—30291 Honiton, 105; 30388 Dottedter, 105. Arabo, show, 1 to 4. Gold Van, show, 4 to 5. Mireina, show, evens.

Time, 2:44, 481, 1:13 1/2, 1:21.

Winner—Ch. g. by Salvation—Plumeria. Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Shellmount received a lucky break and waited on his field to the stretch turn, where he came on fast. Huachuca got off none too well and was carried wide rounding for home. He was undoubtedly the best. Rubus was a trifle short and was anchored in the worst going on the rail throughout. Prestano was nobly left. He was rushed into the lead with a clever turn of speed, but the effort tired him. He is of delicate conformation.

No show betting.

30423 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $600. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Time, 26, 51, 1:16, 1:42 1/2, 1:48 1/2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Midlothian—Rosette. Went to post at 3:34. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. Janice broke sideways but quickly recovered and under a stiff pull went to the front at the half. She had to be ridden out, however, to stall off Greyfeld's rush at the end. The latter was in the deepest going throughout. All Green appeared to be somewhat sore. He broke flatfooted and was all tangled up at the start losing a half dozen lengths. Mission, off badly, showed a clever turn of speed for seven furlongs and should win when placed properly.

Overweights—Mission, 2 pounds.

Janice, show, out. Greyfeld, show, 1 to 3. All Green, show, out.

30424 FIFTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25 1/2, 50, 1:15 1/2, 1:42 1/2, 1:48 1/2.

Winner—Ch. h. by Bathampton—Crisis. Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Bathos was taken back soon after the start and trailed until rounding for home where he was forced to make a wide turn. He passed his field in the stretch with ease and was much the best. Lavator was lucky, skillfully handled throughout and just lasted long enough to beat the badly ridden Wolhurst which closed with a rush. Expedient ran well. Ulloa appeared a contender for almost a half mile. Morinel was forced into the deep going on the backstretch. He tired badly racing with the pacemaker. Urchin is a good looker but does not race to his looks.

Scratched—(30221) Senator Matts, 106; 30272 Picador, 104; 30353 The Gaffer, 101.

Overweights—Bathos, 1 pound; Expedient, 2. Bathos, show, out. Lavator, show, 2 to 5. Wolhurst, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 24, 48, 1:14.

Winner—B. f. by True Briton—Mayetta.
Went to post at 4:26. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Maresa was lucky and was fresh and good. She liked the slightly cuppy going and showed much improvement. King Dellis ran a speedy and game race and is in great form. Sweet Tooth, off slowly, was carried hopelessly wide rounding into the stretch. Gannon's incompetent ride hindered him in the stretch. He was the best. Sea Queen, off badly, was raced into prominence with a great burst of speed and was easily the second best. She tired in the deep going on the rail at the end. San Venado is in great form for him. He wants a longer race in a cheaper field. The Pride was in bad condition after his recent grueling races in the mud. He swerved all over the stretch when pressed.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. King Tatus raced Goldaga into submission but had to stand a long hard drive to stall off Senator Sullivan and Frank Jones. Senator Sullivan suffered from a bad ride. He was taken wide and allowed to drop back rounding the far turn but finished strongly when Odom went to work on him. Goldaga hung when it came to a drive. Frank Jones came very wide rounding into the stretch. He came again at the end and would have been second in another stride.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Digby Bell ran an improved race and stood a long, hard drive in game fashion. Echo Dale was made entirely too much use of and hung when called upon. With a better judged ride he would have won. St. David ran in spots. Boyd was of no help to Meme Wastell. He was unable to keep her straight and she swerved all over the track. Campus' showing was much below his true form.

Both were staggering at the end and swerved toward the inside rail. Brennan put up a bad ride on Malay. The gelding was under a pull to the turn for home but the jockey's finish was weak. Went to post at 4:18. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Beana outclassed her field, went to the front when ready and was going away at the end. El Ghor met with much interference. He was in a pocket on the backstretch and cut off at the far turn. He outgamed Star Cotton when it came to a drive.
